

EMPOWERING YOUR WORKFORCE TO DELIVER SUSTAINABLE PERFORMANCE

DATE AND LOCATION

Bulgari Hotel, London September 10th, 2019

Your people are one of your largest costs. But, they also represent your greatest asset.

Faced with changing customer demand, cost pressures and increasing legislation, how can the retail and hospitality sectors transform to deliver long-term sustainability and profitability, and deliver high-quality and engaging work for their employees?

Join Kronos and your industry peers to discuss strategies to manage the Government Good Work Plan, HMRC minimum wage and the recent ruling by the European Courts of Justice over employee time tracking.

...do you strike the right balance to ensure success?

OUR SPEAKERS

Helen Dickinson OBE
Chief Executive BRC

Helen leads the team and sets the strategic direction of the BRC. She joined in January 2013 and has been working with retailers for over 25 years. She is also a judge of the Everywoman Retail Ambassadors Programme and was previously Chair of Working Chance, a charity helping women offenders find employment between 2012 and 2016.

Helen was previously UK Head of Retail at KPMG, driving and developing the retail practice and leading relationships and audits for many clients.

Helen was awarded the OBE in 2016 for Services to Retail.

John Harding
Partner, Employment, PwC UK

John has over 20 years' experience in advising clients on how to manage their employment costs as well as associated employment tax and employment risk and reward issues.

John is currently leading on PwC's services to clients on both the operational aspects and challenges arising from Gender Pay Gap Reporting, The Apprenticeship Levy, The Skills Levy and National Living Wage.

John's background in Employment Taxes means that he is familiar with HMRC's approach to employment matters and his experience in retail and hospitality and leisure industries ensures that he is able to provide pragmatic solutions for business.

KRONOS is a global workforce technology partner to the retail and hospitality sectors. For over 40 years Kronos have been helping thousands of retail and hospitality organisations deliver fair, equitable and engaging work for employees, whilst improving the performance and profitability of businesses.
