ACCELERATE YOUR DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION WITH ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES

FOR FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSURANCE COMPANIES

DATE AND LOCATION

Frankfurt (DE)

June 26th, 2018

Many financial services and insurance companies have automated the vast majority of their key processes and customer experiences. However, the “last mile” of most transactions – completing the agreement – far too often relies on the same inefficient pen-and-paper processes of yesterday.

Digitizing agreements using electronic signatures lets you keep processes digital from end to end, which helps you increase revenue, save time and reduce costs.

No more printing, signing, scanning contracts or agreements – you and your customers can approve or sign from anywhere at any time and from any device.
